Heather Roffe, director

Bring your family to experience the magic of Prokofiev's Peter and the Wolf with new choreography by the Nazareth College Dance Ensemble. The classic musical tale tells the story of an adventurous boy who stands up to the dreaded Wolf with the help of some animal friends, represented by various instruments of the Orchestra!

Classical Kids: Beethoven Lives Upstairs

Sun, May 20 (2pm)

Michael Buttermann, conductor

What would it be like if a child had to describe the music of Beethoven? Such is the premise for "Beethoven Lives Upstairs," a musical story that follows a young boy's letters to his uncle about the new tenant in the upstairs room. Be captivated by more than 25 excerpts of the master's music, including the Moonlight Sonata, Fur Elise, and the great Fifth and Ninth Symphonies.
