

Civil Discourse – Civic Engagement:

Inaugural Event: How Subsidized Child Care Can Change Lives

Subsidized child care is a road out of poverty and into economically secure futures, especially when tied to education. Join us for our keynote lecture followed by a panel discussion and action groups.

Monday, April 29, 2019

5:30 – 7:00 PM

ASL interpreters will be present.

The Little Theatre, 240 East Ave, Rochester, NY 14604

Keynote Lecture:

“MCC’s Students Who Are Parents:

Their Unique Characteristics, and How and Why We Should Help Them Succeed”

Dr. Mary Ann DeMario

Monroe Community College

Panelists:

Barbara Ann Mattle

CEO, Western New York Child Care Council

Elaine Spaul

Executive Director, The Center for Youth

Tatyana Davis

Student-Parent Success Story

Sponsored by:

SUSAN B. ANTHONY CENTER

Translating research into policy

TEMPLE SINAI

THE NATIONAL
SUSAN B. ANTHONY
MUSEUM & HOUSE

